Murder Mystery at Hibernia Mansion

The Friends of Hibernia County Park invite you to an evening of “Peace, Love & Homicide” on September 25th and 26th, 6:30pm – 9:00pm at Hibernia Mansion.

Heavy, man! Who went ape and offed a dude? Did the hip cat bug out or hang around to fake out the fuzz? It's a bad scene, and Johnny Law needs your help to get the juice on this group of suspects. Have a blast interrogating the potential perps. So be there or be square... it's sure to be outta sight!

So beat feet to Hibernia Park for this year's Murder Mystery and send the skuzz to “college”. Guess right and you'll bag a ticket to the 2015 Candlelight Tours in December. All are welcome to enjoy free refreshments in the ballroom after the tour.

Tickets are $5 per person and benefit the Friends of Hibernia. Call 610-383-3812 for more information.
*Please be advised that this event may contain adult themes not suited for children.

Hibernia Mansion, a restored 19th- century estate, was home to Ironmasters. The Mansion, as you see it today, reflects the changes of lifestyle and social status of its various owners for over two hundred years. Hibernia is on the National Register of Historic Places and the Pennsylvania Inventory of Historic Places. It is also part of the Hatfield-Hibernia National Register Historic District.

Ticket sales and donations support the Friends Group and help maintain this historical site. Follow them on Facebook at Friends of Hibernia County Park.

Hibernia Mansion is located within Hibernia County Park, Wagontown, off the Route 82 exit of the Route 30 Bypass. For more information, please call 610-383-3812 or www.chesco.org/ccparks
